

CENTRAL STATES and Minnesota's 1st District Pensions by the Numbers

1,082

Retired (532), active (164), and inactive (386) pension plan participants in the 1st District

These participants rely on the strength of their multiemployer pension plan for their future retirement security.

39

Number of companies who employ participants residing in Minnesota's 1st District

These businesses provide the jobs that are the lifeline of local economies. Well crafted pension legislation would provide relief from increasing pension liabilities that are putting these jobs at risk.

$1,191,331

Plan contributions made by 1st District employers in 2013

These contributions help ensure that Central States participants, including 1st District constituents, will have adequate income in retirement.

$7,504,491

Total annual payments to pension beneficiaries in the 1st District

Research shows that retirement benefits strengthen local businesses and economies by encouraging economic activity, leading to higher incomes for workers and more jobs created by local employers.

$615,645

Total annual federal tax payments made by retirees on their benefits

On average, each retiree pays $1117 in federal tax revenue every year on their benefits.

$98,179,282

Current pensions at risk in Minnesota's 1st District

The loss of this retirement income to Minnesota's 1st District constituents may result in reduced economic activity in the district, weakened local businesses, lower incomes for workers and fewer jobs.

CENTRAL STATES and Minnesota's 2nd District Pensions by the Numbers

3,122

Retired (1,078), active (674), and inactive (1,370) pension plan participants in the 2nd District

These participants rely on the strength of their multiemployer pension plan for their future retirement security.

75

Number of companies who employ participants residing in Minnesota's 2nd District

These businesses provide the jobs that are the lifeline of local economies. Well crafted pension legislation would provide relief from increasing pension liabilities that are putting these jobs at risk.

$5,478,667

Plan contributions made by 2nd District employers in 2013

These contributions help ensure that Central States participants, including 2nd District constituents, will have adequate income in retirement.

$16,113,885

Total annual payments to pension beneficiaries in the 2nd District

Research shows that retirement benefits strengthen local businesses and economies by encouraging economic activity, leading to higher incomes for workers and more jobs created by local employers.

$1,421,053

Total annual federal tax payments made by retirees on their benefits

On average, each retiree pays $1243 in federal tax revenue every year on their benefits.

$243,961,539

Current pensions at risk in Minnesota's 2nd District

The loss of this retirement income to Minnesota's 2nd District constituents may result in reduced economic activity in the district, weakened local businesses, lower incomes for workers and fewer jobs.

CENTRAL STATES and Minnesota's 3rd District Pensions by the Numbers

3,062

Retired (1,326), active (678), and inactive (1,058) pension plan participants in the 3rd District

These participants rely on the strength of their multiemployer pension plan for their future retirement security.

85

Number of companies who employ participants residing in Minnesota's 3rd District

These businesses provide the jobs that are the lifeline of local economies. Well crafted pension legislation would provide relief from increasing pension liabilities that are putting these jobs at risk.

$5,851,732

Plan contributions made by 3rd District employers in 2013

These contributions help ensure that Central States participants, including 3rd District constituents, will have adequate income in retirement.

$18,200,290

Total annual payments to pension beneficiaries in the 3rd District

Research shows that retirement benefits strengthen local businesses and economies by encouraging economic activity, leading to higher incomes for workers and more jobs created by local employers.

$1,497,410

Total annual federal tax payments made by retirees on their benefits

On average, each retiree pays $1069 in federal tax revenue every year on their benefits.

$244,221,780

Current pensions at risk in Minnesota's 3rd District

The loss of this retirement income to Minnesota's 3rd District constituents may result in reduced economic activity in the district, weakened local businesses, lower incomes for workers and fewer jobs.

CENTRAL STATES and Minnesota's 4th District Pensions by the Numbers

2,575

Retired (1,169), active (472), and inactive (934) pension plan participants in the 4th District

These participants rely on the strength of their multiemployer pension plan for their future retirement security.

84

Number of companies who employ participants residing in Minnesota's 4th District

These businesses provide the jobs that are the lifeline of local economies. Well crafted pension legislation would provide relief from increasing pension liabilities that are putting these jobs at risk.

$4,522,698

Plan contributions made by 4th District employers in 2013

These contributions help ensure that Central States participants, including 4th District constituents, will have adequate income in retirement.

$16,615,965

Total annual payments to pension beneficiaries in the 4th District

Research shows that retirement benefits strengthen local businesses and economies by encouraging economic activity, leading to higher incomes for workers and more jobs created by local employers.

$1,541,209

Total annual federal tax payments made by retirees on their benefits

On average, each retiree pays $1251 in federal tax revenue every year on their benefits.

$219,635,970

Current pensions at risk in Minnesota's 4th District

The loss of this retirement income to Minnesota's 4th District constituents may result in reduced economic activity in the district, weakened local businesses, lower incomes for workers and fewer jobs.

CENTRAL STATES and Minnesota's 5th District Pensions by the Numbers

2,082

Retired (967), active (404), and inactive (711) pension plan participants in the 5th District

These participants rely on the strength of their multiemployer pension plan for their future retirement security.

77

Number of companies who employ participants residing in Minnesota's 5th District

These businesses provide the jobs that are the lifeline of local economies. Well crafted pension legislation would provide relief from increasing pension liabilities that are putting these jobs at risk.

$3,575,182

Plan contributions made by 5th District employers in 2013

These contributions help ensure that Central States participants, including 5th District constituents, will have adequate income in retirement.

$11,918,131

Total annual payments to pension beneficiaries in the 5th District

Research shows that retirement benefits strengthen local businesses and economies by encouraging economic activity, leading to higher incomes for workers and more jobs created by local employers.

$971,269

Total annual federal tax payments made by retirees on their benefits

On average, each retiree pays $965 in federal tax revenue every year on their benefits.

$148,365,162

Current pensions at risk in Minnesota's 5th District

The loss of this retirement income to Minnesota's 5th District constituents may result in reduced economic activity in the district, weakened local businesses, lower incomes for workers and fewer jobs.

CENTRAL STATES and Minnesota's 6th District Pensions by the Numbers

3,720

Retired (1,688), active (751), and inactive (1,281) pension plan participants in the 6th District

These participants rely on the strength of their multiemployer pension plan for their future retirement security.

95

Number of companies who employ participants residing in Minnesota's 6th District

These businesses provide the jobs that are the lifeline of local economies. Well crafted pension legislation would provide relief from increasing pension liabilities that are putting these jobs at risk.

$6,646,244

Plan contributions made by 6th District employers in 2013

These contributions help ensure that Central States participants, including 6th District constituents, will have adequate income in retirement.

$25,824,173

Total annual payments to pension beneficiaries in the 6th District

Research shows that retirement benefits strengthen local businesses and economies by encouraging economic activity, leading to higher incomes for workers and more jobs created by local employers.

$2,237,291

Total annual federal tax payments made by retirees on their benefits

On average, each retiree pays $1262 in federal tax revenue every year on their benefits.

$341,910,748

Current pensions at risk in Minnesota's 6th District

The loss of this retirement income to Minnesota's 6th District constituents may result in reduced economic activity in the district, weakened local businesses, lower incomes for workers and fewer jobs.

CENTRAL STATES and Minnesota's 7th District Pensions by the Numbers

2,501

Retired (1,274), active (430), and inactive (797) pension plan participants in the 7th District

These participants rely on the strength of their multiemployer pension plan for their future retirement security.

49

Number of companies who employ participants residing in Minnesota's 7th District

These businesses provide the jobs that are the lifeline of local economies. Well crafted pension legislation would provide relief from increasing pension liabilities that are putting these jobs at risk.

$3,207,264

Plan contributions made by 7th District employers in 2013

These contributions help ensure that Central States participants, including 7th District constituents, will have adequate income in retirement.

$16,560,500

Total annual payments to pension beneficiaries in the 7th District

Research shows that retirement benefits strengthen local businesses and economies by encouraging economic activity, leading to higher incomes for workers and more jobs created by local employers.

$1,303,008

Total annual federal tax payments made by retirees on their benefits

On average, each retiree pays $973 in federal tax revenue every year on their benefits.

$201,572,027

Current pensions at risk in Minnesota's 7th District

The loss of this retirement income to Minnesota's 7th District constituents may result in reduced economic activity in the district, weakened local businesses, lower incomes for workers and fewer jobs.

CENTRAL STATES and Minnesota's 8th District Pensions by the Numbers

3,624

Retired (2,132), active (561), and inactive (931) pension plan participants in the 8th District

These participants rely on the strength of their multiemployer pension plan for their future retirement security.

87

Number of companies who employ participants residing in Minnesota's 8th District

These businesses provide the jobs that are the lifeline of local economies. Well crafted pension legislation would provide relief from increasing pension liabilities that are putting these jobs at risk.

$5,422,333

Plan contributions made by 8th District employers in 2013

These contributions help ensure that Central States participants, including 8th District constituents, will have adequate income in retirement.

$29,882,050

Total annual payments to pension beneficiaries in the 8th District

Research shows that retirement benefits strengthen local businesses and economies by encouraging economic activity, leading to higher incomes for workers and more jobs created by local employers.

$2,476,799

Total annual federal tax payments made by retirees on their benefits

On average, each retiree pays $1107 in federal tax revenue every year on their benefits.

$346,542,160

Current pensions at risk in Minnesota's 8th District

The loss of this retirement income to Minnesota's 8th District constituents may result in reduced economic activity in the district, weakened local businesses, lower incomes for workers and fewer jobs.